

On a hot summer day Zack the zebra distributes invitations for his birthday party. He is very excited and is looking forward to celebrate with the other children.

Later, the others discover the invitations and start laughing. Zack thinks that they are happy but then he understands that they are laughing at him.

Zack asks : "why are you laughing?". Henry the hipo answers "because we won't come to your birthday party.". Zacksays : "but why...?". Mandy the monkey shouts : "because you look very strange!!".

The next day there is a new animal in the kindergarten. It's Gigi the giraffe. And look...her fur is striped! She looks different than the other giraffes.

Zack the zebra and Gigi the giraffe become friends immediately. Zack asks Gigi, "Do you want to come to my birthday party tomorrow?" Gigi answers, "Oh sure! Who else is coming?". Zack says, "Nobody, ^{they} don't like me."

On the next day at the birthday party Zack and Gigi have a lot of fun. They eat lots of cake, hear their favorite music and drink children champagne.

After the weekend Zack and Gigi talk about Zack's birthday party. The others hear it and realize that they were very mean to him.

CREATIVE ROOM

They have a great idea to apologize to Zack and paint a picture for him.

Zack accepts the apology and they all play together.
