

Pablito is looking for a friend!

Text:

Falko Melchior

José Ramón Gomez Diaz- Rullo

Julia Katinka Fliege

Illustration:

Arezoo Khademzadeh

Annemarie Killinger

This is Pablito.

Today Pablito and his family move from Spain to England into their new home.

He's already excited to see his new room.

Kindergarden

Wel Come

It's his first day at kindergarten.

After he put his slippers on,

he is picked up by his new educator Jane.

He is impressed by the variety of toys.

There are "piezas de construcción" and a "estanteria" from where he takes himself a book.

But something was strange. He gets avoided by the other children, because he is different.

At home, in bed, he looks very sad.

He tells his mama that he doesn't want to go to kindergarten anymore, because the other children exclude him. But his mama says:

"Todo irá bien Pablito!", tomorrow it's going to be different.

The next day he finds himself some bricks, he builds a house out of it peacefully.

Suddenly a boy comes and destroys his house.

This makes Pablito very sad.

He starts to cry.

Then a girl named Conny sits next to him.

Together they create a castle so wonderful and high that the others could get jealous.

Since then the two spend a lot of time together...

...in the garden...

...at breakfast...

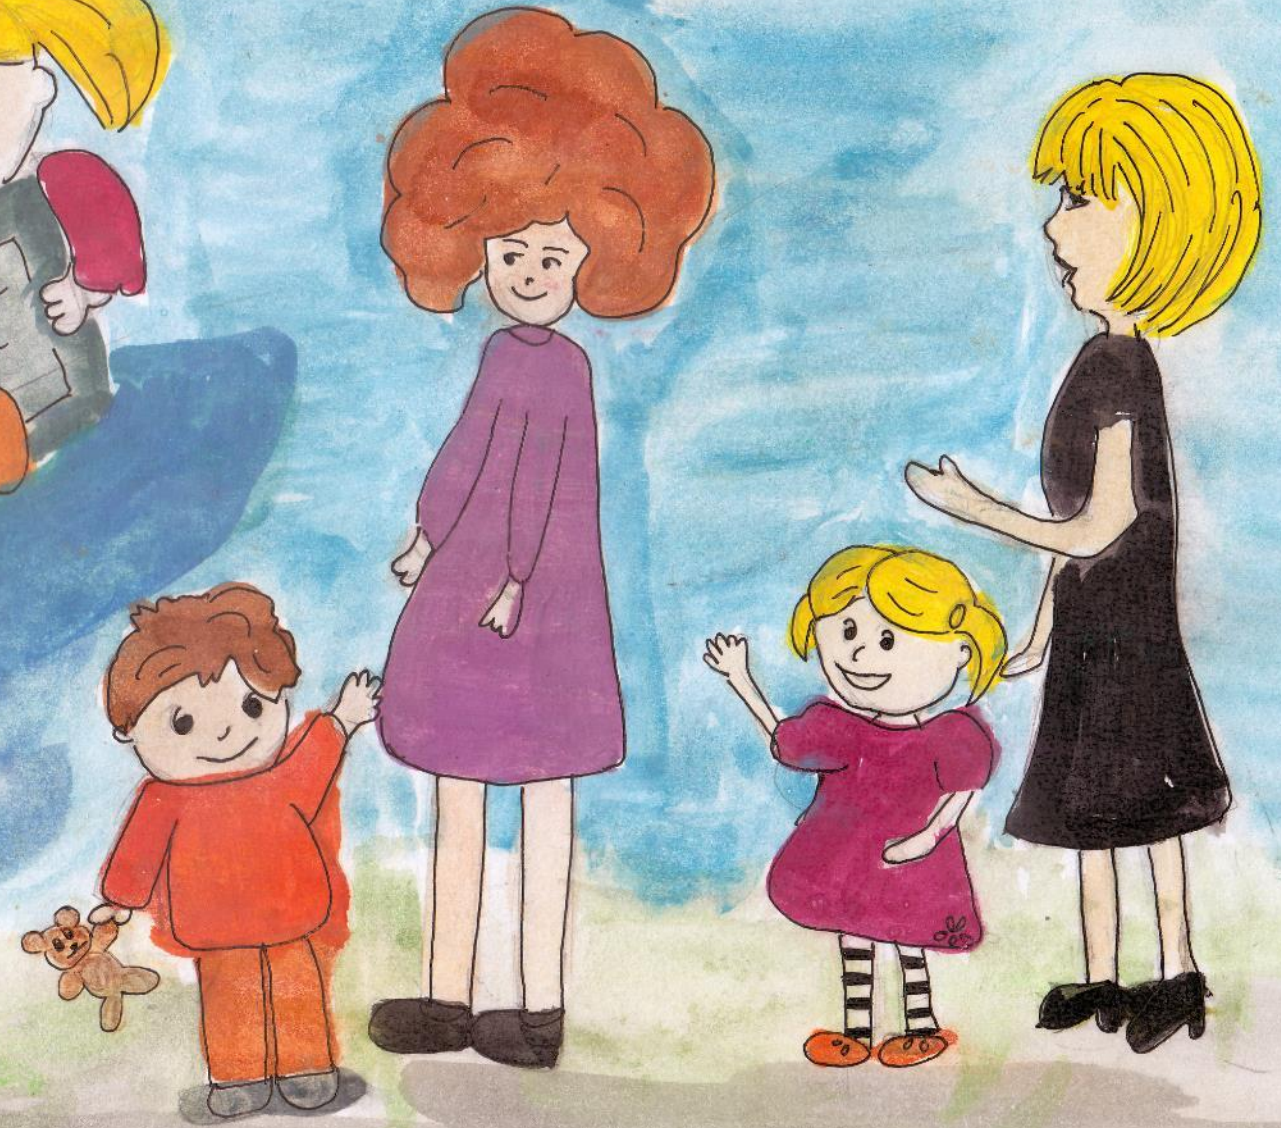

...and at saying goodbye...

...while reading books...

Pablito comes home. He immediately tells his mamá about his new friend Conny from kindergarten.

His mamá tells him: "¡ye te he dicho que todo irá bien!"

I told you everything's going to be fine!

